Gordon Faulkner

Gordon, a Fellow of the Royal Asiatic Society and a member of the Society for Anglo-Chinese Understanding, has been a teacher of oriental martial and health arts for over thirty years.

During his career he has been a Co-Director of the Healing Tao European Instructors Association and, whilst serving in the Royal Air Force, was the first General Secretary of the RAF Martial Arts Federation, a post he held until his retirement from military service, when he became a full time Daoist Arts teacher.

He is recognised for his outstanding abilities in these fields in both the West and inside China. Professor Zhang Guangde of the Beijing University of Physical Education made him a successor to the Daoyin Yangsheng Gong lineage, and he has recently been encouraged by the same University to start production of health routines for the western climate.

Along with teaching Chinese Therapeutic Massage and Daoist Meditation practices he is presently the President for Scotland and Wales of the European Daoyin Yangsheng Gong Federation, Principle Instructor of the Chanquanshu School of Daoist Arts, and teaches regularly in throughout Europe.
