

TCM Congress

3rd Scandinavian TCM Congress

„Chinese Medicine and the Fertile Spirit: Childhood, Nourishment and Long Life “

Dr. Yair Maimon, O.M.D PhD AC

Being eternal student of Chinese medicine over the last 25 years I was privileged to study with the best teachers all around the world and graduate from schools in England, Holland, USA and China. Studying different approaches of Chinese medicine such as: "5 Elements", TCM, Stems and Branches, Japanese Acupuncture, Chinese Herbal medicine and studies of ancient texts. Including postgraduate Specialization in: Pediatrics, gynecology and oncology.

Former dean and Co-founder of the largest TCM collage in Israel "medi-cin" and director of a program for medical doctors at Bar Illan University. Currently dean of "Campus Broshim" complementary medical collage situated at Tel Aviv university and the Head of the complementary Medicine unit at the Sourasky Medical Center (Hospital), Tel Aviv involved in research and the treatments of hospitalized and out patients.